MAIN WORKS

Failed I have, in exile I must go (2020-2023)

Mixed media installation (photo prints on kozo paper, digital tablets, text slideshows, framed pictures) revealing a three-years correspondance with hikikomoris (social recluses)

Just my luck (2017-ongoing) with Cécile Hupin

Artistic investigation about the sociological consequences of a sudden gain of money, when winning the lottery.

Hernie & Plume (2013-2019)

Photobook & exhibition evoking the life of a couple living in a trailer camp in the outskirts of Brussels, with social mobility, aging & stereotypes as background themes.

To tell my real intentions, I want to eat only haze like a hermit (2016 - 2018)

Artist book & exhibition evoking the relationship people have with food and body in the context of Japanese society (interviews, archives, photos, etc.).

Everything is falling apart (2020 - 2021)

Exhibition and fanzine about the life of a group of teens told & photographed by themselves in a rural context during covid.

The object of my attention (2018-2021) - with W'up company

Performative installations based on an inquiry on our relationship to objects (chapter 1) and the specific relationship between teenagers and their objects (chapter 2).

Rotten Potato (2013 - 2015)

Photo installation questioning the relationship we have with food, from the perspective of competitive eaters.

Abroad is Too Far (2012 - 2014)

Photo series showing a few attempts from the Chinese government or real estate companies to imagine new mass housing solutions copied from European architecture.

Past Forward (2011 - 2012)

Photo series dealing with several contemporary social and societal issues China has to face, approached from the inside, in their everyday aspects.

Hidden Living (2010 - 2011)

Photographs taken in camping sites all around Belgium, evoking the tension that exists between living together and turning in on oneself.

Palm Club (2011 - 2012)

Street art project evoking the symbolic links between people from the same area by painting the same pattern on various abandoned items.
